

Wedding Family Photo Shot List

Family formals go fastest when the list is short, written in order, and one person on each side knows everyone's face. Done right, they take about eighteen minutes. Send me your list a few days before the wedding and I'll shoot it in order, oldest relatives first.

Your point people

Bride's side

Groom's side

Name and cell number. These are the people who round up relatives while I set up the next group.

Things I should know

Divorced or separated family members, anyone who can't stand for long, someone you want to honor who can't be there, anyone who shouldn't stand next to each other.

Send the finished list to info@ericgoldsteinphotography.com a few days before the wedding. We'll go over it again on our final planning call.
